THE PARISH REGISTERS

OF

ARDINGLY, SUSSEX.

1558—1812.

EDITED BY

GERALD W. E. LODER.

ISSUED TO SUBSCRIBERS OF THE SUSSEX RECORD SOCIETY AS AN EXTRA VOLUME FOR THE YEAR 1913.

P R E F A C E .

THE Ardingly Registers commence with the year 1558, and, down to the year 1812, are contained in five thin volumes or parts. The first part, which is on parchment, comprises the years 1558 to 1651. The entries in this from 1558 to 1598 were copied, pursuant to the constitution of the Convocation of Canterbury made in 1597, and approved under the Great Seal, from the original paper Register, which still exists and has been compared with the copy, with the results shewn in this volume. The second part extends from 1649 to 1690, two years partially overlapping, and is on parchment, as are the remaining parts, viz., 1690 to 1724, 1724 to 1806, and 1806 to 1812. They are all in a very fair state of preservation, except that in the second part the page which contained the Marriages from 1681 to 1689 has been cut out. They are kept in an iron safe in the Vestry at the Church at Ardingly.

The Rev. J. H. Lee Booker, at one time Curate at Ardingly, made a transcript of the Registers up to 1724, and added a number of Ardingly Wills and other matter. This large folio volume is preserved with the Registers; it has greatly facilitated the compilation of the present volume, and remains as a treasured record of the untiring zeal which Mr. Booker devoted to the history of Ardingly.

Thanks are due to Miss Cooper for the care with which she has prepared the contents of this volume, and for comparing the Registers, as to the earliest parchment, with the paper Register, and as to all of them with the Bishop's transcripts at Lewes, which begin in 1607, and for obtaining from these various missing entries, and some other omitted details. She has also compiled the Index.

Mr. Renshaw, K.C., has kindly supplied a number of entries of Marriages in other Parishes relating to Ardingly, and has generously given much valuable assistance and advice throughout.

Acknowledgments and thanks are also due to Mr. W. W. Freeland and to Mr. Lintot for permitting the inspection of the Bishop's transcripts without fees, and to the Rev. J. L. Brack, Rector of Ardingly, for allowing the fullest access to the Registers, and in many ways facilitating the work.

"These Christnings of the year 1724 are also registered in the new Register book begun from May 9th, 1724."

N.B. that the names of Walter Holman, baptized March 1st 1709, and of Mary Stonestreet, baptized Jan<sup>y</sup> 22, 1720, were inserted in this Register was because they had been forgott in M<sup>r</sup> Robrough's time by the neglect of the Churchwardens, who then kept the Register, and were inserted by me, C. Lyddell, Rector of Ardingly, upon the attestation of their Godfathers and Godmothers, who testyfyed their being baptized at those times.

N.B.—This year by an Act of Parliament. It was appointed that the Civil and Ecclesiastical year should both begin on the first of January 1752; and by the same Act, the Stile was altered from the Julian to the Gregorian Account, by the Annihilation of eleven Days in the Month of September 1752, all the intermediate Days from the 2nd of September 1752 to the 14th of September 1752 being omitted; so that the old Stile, according to the Julian Account, ceases on the 2nd of September this year, and the new Stile, according to the Gregorian Account, begins on September the 14th this year.*
